Ann Arbor TLM Walking Pilgrimage

Ann Arbor Latin Mass organizer Joe Lipa sent along information on an upcoming walking pilgrimage that includes a Tridentine Mass:

How privileged we are, then, to make Pope St. Pius X's very motto—"to restore all things in Christ"—the theme of our 2nd annual Walking Marian Pilgrimage on Saturday, Oct. 5. United with this same intention, pilgrims will walk 17 miles from St. Mary, Manchester to St. Andrew, Saline. Highlights include: an opening Sung TLM at St. Mary celebrated by Fr. Gerald Gawronski, a scenic and peaceful route with stops at a cider mill and historic cemeteries, and concluding Vespers with a pizza party at St. Andrew.

Registration for the pilgrimage is now open, with a discounted rate until Sept. 30, at: <https://tinyurl.com/pilgrimage1005>

SOLT Priest Training Report #3

Congratulations to Fr. Dennis Mary Dugan, SOLT, who celebrated his first Traditional Latin Mass on Thursday, August 22, 2024, after training from Extraordinary Faith. Currently assigned to Most Holy Trinity Parish in Phoenix, Arizona, Fr.

Dennis Mary wanted to learn the TLM for the benefit of his own spiritual life. Special thanks to previous student of ours, Fr. Daniel Cruz of the Diocese of Phoenix, for referring Fr. Dennis Mary.

Fr. Dennis Mary is the third priest of the SOLT order to take our training. The first was Fr. Tony Blount of Detroit's Holy Redeemer Parish, and the second was Fr. Eduardo Montemayor, then of Phoenix's Most Holy Trinity Parish.

The training was conducted in a beautiful chapel on the grounds of a private residence.
