Fr. McDonell on Men of the Hearts Podcast

The Men of the Hearts podcast is produced by the Office of Priestly Vocations of the Archdiocese of Detroit. Over its history it has been quite sympathetic to the Traditional Latin Mass, albeit indirectly. While rarely if ever mentioning the TLM by name, the podcast has regularly featured, or been co-hosted by, priests who celebrate or are known to be sympathetic to the Tridentine Mass. Those include brothers Frs. Zach and Drew Mabee, Fr. David Pellican, Fr. Cy Whitaker, and this month, Fr. Clint McDonell. Fr. McDonell is a familiar celebrant of Latin Masses around our region, including the Oakland County Latin Mass Association at the Orchard Lake Shrine Chapel, the St. John Resort Chapel in Plymouth, and Old St. Patrick's in Ann Arbor.

In the current episode, Fr. McDonell discusses his own vocation story, his current assignment of teaching Latin at Sacred Heart Major Seminary, and how beauty in art, architecture, and sacred music was an inspiration to him as his vocation was nurtured.

Votive Masses

On Feasts or Ferias of the Fourth Class, the celebrant has the choice of saying one of the following Masses:

1. The Mass of the specified (Fourth Class) Saint, if there is one that day
2. The Ferial Mass, which is the usually the Mass of the preceding Sunday, or during Lent, a unique Mass for that weekday
3. The Daily Mass for the Dead (the memorial Requiem Mass)
4. The Mass of any Saint or of certain titled Feasts, even though they are normally assigned another date in the Calendar. Examples of Votive Masses for titled Feasts include Holy Name of Jesus and Immaculate Conception. It is not permissible to have a Votive

Mass of the Nativity, of Easter, or of Pentecost, as those Feasts are highly tied to the Liturgical Year.
