The Historic Detroit Church Photos of Stan Kaftan Part 1 of 2

The Facebook group “I Went to Catholic School in Metro Detroit” has become a repository for a library of never elsewhere seen historic photos of Detroit area Catholic churches posted by Stan Kaftan. These churches have been closed and/or remodeled. It is hard to imagine how glorious the Archdiocese of Detroit was in the early to mid 20th century, with a vibrant liturgical life at so many parishes. Well worth a perusal, here are some photos he has posted there over the years.
