The Historic Detroit Church Photos of Stan Kaftan Part 2 of 2

We continue with more of Stan Kaftan's photos from the Facebook group "I Went to Catholic School in Metro Detroit". This repository of historic photos of Detroit area Catholic churches and schools contains many pictures of lesser-known closed or remodeled churches from their glory days in the mid 20th century. Many more photos may be viewed on that page.

Of the churches in last week's column, only St. Mary Student Chapel in Ann Arbor remains open, albeit drastically remodeled. Of this week's churches, St. Martin of Tours has been mothballed and could potentially be reopened, though it is in bad shape.
